

Barbara Carter is an appointee minister for the Community of Christ, serving the East Central USA Mission Field as the Field Apostolic Assistant. She has served the people of the church as an appointee for 15 years in the South Central States Region, San Francisco Bay Stake, Sierra Pacific Mission Center, and now the East Central Field.

Barbara grew up on the coast of Oregon, living only 4 blocks from the ocean. She has been married for 30 years to Charlie Carter. They have a daughter, Chelsea, who is a senior at Graceland University. During the last 30 years, Barbara and Charlie have lived across the United States; from South Carolina to California with stops in Missouri, Oregon, Kansas and now Illinois.

Barbara hold a bachelors degree in Psychology from Graceland University; a Masters of Education in Counseling and School Psychology from Wichita State University; and a Masters of Religion from Park College. Prior to working for the church she worked in the field of child advocacy and in finance.