

Seventy Charlie Carter currently serves the church as the Missionary Coordinator for the Brush Creek Mission Center in the state of Illinois, USA. He has been employed with the church in many locations: East Central States Region, South Central States Region, and Sierra-Pacific Mission Center, and the Brush Creek Mission Center. His passion is sharing the peace of Jesus Christ and effectively promoting the missionary task of the church.

Charlie grew up in Colorado and graduated from Graceland University with a degree in Special Studies with an emphasis on Church Leadership and Human Relations . He is married to Barbara Carter and they have a daughter, Chelsea, who is a senior at Graceland University.